ARTS ON THE EDGE Wolfeboro, a new summer festival that celebrates innovative artistic creativity as an expression of human spirituality, will present a visual art exhibit, music concerts, dance performances, and workshops by international and local artists. In addition, the public is invited to a series of discussions and reflections with the artists and leading scholars in the fields of art and theology. ARTS ON THE EDGE Wolfeboro is a project of the First Congregational Church, Wolfeboro, a member of the progressive United Church of Christ. The festival debuts this July and August in Wolfeboro, NH, located on the shores of Lake Winnepesaukee. For more information and tickets please visit our website at www.artsedgewolfeforo.org or call (603)651-8343.
